

Breaking Insurance

Let's deep dive and understand the mindset of the pioneers of the Insurtech industry and learn where the sector is heading in the future. We will showcase innovation and disruption in an industry much in need for transformation by meeting and listening to thought leaders, entrepreneurs and experts from all over the globe.

Let's build together a new space to discuss the crossover of Insurance, Technology and Innovation!

What are we proposing?

- ▶ LET'S BUILD THE CONTENT TOGETHER
One "Take Over" Episode
You are in control, supported by the podcast's production team.
Customer storytelling has been the best working format, however it is totally up to you what we will talk about during these episodes.
- ▶ Invite your client, partners and the stakeholders which can talk about your solutions, and in some cases let's show the world what collaboration means by sharing episodes with some of your peers!
